Notes

- If the course is related to General Course or Teacher Education Program, student needs to get approval from The Center for General Education or Center of Teacher Education. (General Education course outline should be submitted along with application)
- Graduate student should get approval from advisor.
- The applied course should be the one that NCKU does not offer. A maximum of 1/3 credit (for current semester) can be taken outside NCKU. Total credits for the same semester should less than 25.
- No enrollment in two schedule-conflicting courses is allowed. The enrollment in two schedule-conflicting courses will result in a grade of zero for both courses.
- After completing the enrollment process, student must submit this form to NCKU Curriculum Division before (date) _____. Otherwise the applied courses will be cancelled.
